

Tips for Nonfiction Readers' Advisory

1. Read nonfiction
2. Talk about the books and share your discoveries
3. Become familiar with the tools
4. Put up displays for nonfiction leisure readers
5. Create displays that cross the Dewey Divide and mix media
6. Take advantage of audio books to introduce readers to the pleasures of nonfiction to discover popular titles through the catalogs
7. Collect Sure Bets
8. Set personal goals to expand your knowledge
9. Promote nonfiction on your website and throughout the library
10. Expand nonfiction for teens
11. Include nonfiction in book discussion group—or start a nonfiction group
12. Approach readers in the stacks and offer nonfiction as well as fiction

30 Nonfiction Authors to Know

Roger Angel

Ross King

Paul Theroux

Dave Barry

Jon Krakauer

Calvin Trillin

Daniel J. Boorstin

Mark Kurlansky

Alison Weir

Sylvia Browne

David McCullough

Simon Winchester

Bill Bryson

James McManus

Augusten Burroughs

John McPhee

Annie Dillard

Nathaniel Philbrick

John Feinstein

Richard Preston

Doris Kearns Goodwin

Ruth Reichl

Homer Hickam

Richard Rhodes

Tony Horwitz

Ann Rule

Sebastian Junger

David Sedaris

Tracy Kidder

Dava Sobel

